

MR. MOODY STRICKEN.

Engagement at Kansas City Sunday Oct. Short. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 18.—Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, who has been preaching here to thousands nightly in Convention hall, was stricken with heart trouble yesterday.

Moody at Home.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Nov. 20.—Dwight L. Moody, who recently suffered an attack of heart trouble while engaged in evangelistic work in Kansas City, reached his home here last night and rested comfortably.

DR. STORRS RESIGNS.

Pastor of a Brooklyn Church For Fifty-Three Years. NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Great surprise was caused at the morning service of the Church of the Pilgrims, in Brooklyn, yesterday by the announcement that the Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs, the venerable pastor of the church, would resign.

Relics of Cliff Dwellers.

DENVER, Nov. 17.—One carload of relics from the ruins of the ancient cliff dwellers has just been sent to the Museum of Natural History in New York. They were collected by Professor George H. Pepper and are probably the most valuable ever sent out of southwestern Colorado.

Senator Edmunds Ill.

MACON, Nov. 21.—Ex-Senator George F. Edmunds of Vermont, who is here as leading counsel for the Southern railway in an injunction suit in the United States court, is confined to his room with an attack of bronchitis.

Cut Off His Father's Head.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 22.—Cicero Barnett, colored, cut off his father's head with a hatchet yesterday. The murdered man was 76 years of age. Barnett, who is insane, was arrested.

Books in Japan.

The Japanese now publish three times as many books as the Italians, whose literary powers seem to have faded almost entirely away. Out of 25,000 volumes published last year in the Land of Flowers no less than 5,000 were law books and 1,300 treated of religion.

Self Preservation is the first law of nature.

It is easy to tell whether your kidneys are diseased. Take a bottle of glass tubing and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, there is something wrong with the kidneys.

Send your full postoffice address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will then mail you a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy and a valuable medical pamphlet free, giving full directions for its use.

"Papa," came a shrill, small voice in the silent watches of the night, "I want a drink!" Well, there's the bed spring right under you," drowsily replied the parent.

Biggle Horse Book, advertised in another column, contains more "horse sense" than many volumes ten times its size. It tells all about breeds, about feeding and watering, about stable and road management, of whims and vices, of harness, of diseases and remedies, of breeding, of colt education, of shoeing, and indeed it covers the whole subject in a concise, practical and interesting manner.

The man who predicted persistently, and not wisely, and was so reckless as to invest his money on his judgment, pertinently remarks the Washington "Post," is double-edged inclined to the belief that we have too many elections.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a soft, rich and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren Street, New York.

SATISFACTION OF A MORTGAGE.

In the matter of the petition of Lewis P. Letter, of Bloomsburg, Pa., to satisfy a mortgage, To all whom it may concern.

Whereas, on the 18th day of May, 1871, a certain mortgage was executed and delivered by Jacob Harter to Stephen H. Swank, on a certain message and tract of land situate in Bloomsburg, Columbia County, Pennsylvania, the first part adjoining lands of Jacob Hons, Christian Harter, T. H. Hetter, T. J. Swank and Elizabeth Lutz, containing forty acres and sixty-three perches, strict measure; the second part, adjoining lands of Henry Hetter, T. J. Swank and Jacob Hons, containing five acres, strict measure, to secure the payment of a certain mortgage and bond, dated May 18th, 1871, for one thousand dollars, with legal interest thereon, immediately after the death of Sarah Brown, widow of David Brown, which said mortgage is recorded in the office for the recording of deeds in Columbia county, in Mortgage book No. 7, page 70. The said Stephen H. Swank made an assignment of said mortgage and bond to Stephen Bittenbender, of Shamokin, Pa., April 5, 1875, which assignment was recorded in Mortgage book No. 3, page 84.

The petitioner is now the owner of said two tracts of land. The said Stephen Bittenbender received all the money due on said mortgage, from the administrator of Jacob Harter, deceased; that Stephen Bittenbender died, testate, W. W. Evers being his executor, and without having satisfied said mortgage.

And now, September 25, 1899, after reading said petition, and causing the facts therein to be served on the County of Columbia, the Sheriff of Columbia county is directed to serve a notice, stating the facts set forth in said petition, on the parties, or their legal representatives, if to be found in the county, and if the parties aforesaid cannot be found in said county, then the said Sheriff shall give public notice as aforesaid in one newspaper, published in said county, once a week, for four weeks, successively, prior to the next term of court, requiring the said parties to appear on the first Monday of next term of court and answer the petition as aforesaid.

BY THE COURT. In accordance with the order of the court the parties interested must appear in Court, at Bloomsburg, Pa., on the first Monday of next term of court, to answer the said petition, and show cause why the said mortgage shall not be satisfied. W. W. SHERIFF. 11-24-11
